

Applicant signature form

Complete this form and upload it to your online application if you are applying for consent to acquire:

- Significant business assets
- Sensitive land
- Sensitive land & Significant business assets
- Special forestry test
- Forestry (modified benefits test)
- Residential land development: Increased housing, non-residential use, incidental residential use

You can also use this form if you're applying for standalone investor approval.

Who should sign this form

Applications for consent must be signed by each applicant¹ under Section 23\(1\)\(b\) of the Overseas Investment Act 2005, or by a declarant² on the Applicant's behalf.

Applicant declaration

Applicant name
Declarant name
Declarant position / relationship to Applicant
Applicant / declarant signature
Date signed

¹ The 'applicant' is the person or entity acquiring sensitive land and/or assets, or applying for standalone investor approval.

² A 'declarant' may sign this form on the applicant's behalf if they are:

- an officer of the company (e.g. CEO, director, on behalf of all directors), or
- a person related with the applicant who has knowledge about the information provided to us in the online application.